Join us for the 2026 Cleveland Autumn Assembly, the second English Country Dance Weekend sponsored by Folknet with the help of the Cleveland English Country Dance community.

Karen Axelrod, Rachel Bell, and Audrey Leigh Jaber will provide incomparable music for our Terpsichorean delight. They promise to bring fire, spirit, and a playful style to both traditional and contemporary English Country Dance Music. ♪ Karen left the world of classical music many years ago, and has found her home in the folk world. She is highly regarded for her creative piano playing at dance events around the U.S. and abroad. Her improvisational playing is lyrical yet touched with humor and whimsy. ♪ Rachel is sought after for concerts, dances, and festivals. Her playing spans an enormous range of emotion, from nuanced and sensitive to exhilarating and powerful, pushing the boundaries of what is expected from an accordion. ♪ Audrey's fiddling has electrified dance and concert halls across the US and Europe. Her playing is rhythmically lively and spontaneous; she's guaranteed to get you up and dancing.

Caller: Susan Kevra is noted for her warmth, clear teaching, & lovely voice. Dancers appreciate her diverse repertoire delivered in dulcet tones, without pretension. Her experience as an English Country Dance clarinetist gives her a keen appreciation of the link between the music & the dance, which leads to pleasing dance programs, arranged not just for the figures but the musical moods evoked by the tunes. ♪ With Susan as choreographer and Rachel Bell as tunesmith, the duo has recently published a collection of dances titled "Trip to Provence" which includes not only the title dance, but other dance floor favorites such as "Moonflower" and exciting new dances such as "Andromeda."
